CAASS

The Center for Academic Advisement and Student Success assists undergraduate students in establishing, monitoring, and achieving graduation requirements.

FCY offers initiatives and experiences that help first year students connect to academic life on campus and make a successful transition to the college community.

The Learning Center offers BC students FREE peer tutoring in courses across the curriculum in a comfortable, supportive environment well-stocked with computers and reference materials for student use.

Personal counseling services at the center are free to students at the college. All services are confidential — no information about clients is provided to anyone, either outside or within the college.
